Freedom is always and exclusively freedom for the ones who think differently

Two ambassadors, two activists and several scholars and researchers got together to discuss the South Asian dilemma of peace as part of the two-day South Asia Peace Conference at the University of North Texas two weeks ago.

Keynote: University of North Texas, Denton, TX

Dr. Arvind Singhal, University of Texas–El Paso

On the Shoulder of Giants: Symbolic, Nationalistic, and Humanistic Communication in Times of Conflict

The author explored the media/communication frameworks employed by “giants” such as Mahatma Gandhi, Martin Luther King, Nelson Mandela, Cesar Chavez and others, raising implications for the role of communication in peace and healing in the 21st century.
